

Privacy Policy

Last Updated:  Date

Welcome to the website of Auxos Global Pte. Ltd. ("Auxos Global", "we", "us", or "our"). We are committed to protecting your personal data and respecting your privacy in accordance with international best practices, including the Singapore Personal Data Protection Act (PDPA).

This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, disclose, and safeguard your information when you visit our website (www.auxosglobal.com) or engage with our technology and strategy consultancy services.

1. Information We Collect

We may collect personal data in several ways, including when you provide it to us directly or through automated technologies:

- Identity Data: Names, titles, and professional designations.
- Contact Data: Email addresses, telephone numbers, and physical business addresses.
- Technical Data: IP addresses, browser type, and version, time zone settings, and location data gathered during website visits.
- Usage Data: Information about how you use our website and services.

2. How We Use Your Information

Auxos Global processes your personal data for the following purposes:

- Service Delivery: To provide consultancy in deep technologies, including aerospace platforms, enterprise AI, and decentralized digital systems.
- Business Operations: To manage our relationship with you, including processing payments and maintaining accounts.

- Legal Compliance: To comply with legal and regulatory obligations, such as tax filings and identity verification.
- Communication: To respond to inquiries and provide updates on our Tech Epoch series or other thought leadership.

3. Disclosure of Your Information

We may share your information with selected third parties who assist us in our operations, including:

- Professional Advisors: Accountants, lawyers, and auditors who provide consultancy or compliance services.
- Service Partners: Specialized partners in aerospace or digital infrastructure where necessary to fulfill contract obligations.
- Infrastructure Providers: Third-party providers for secure data storage and digital transformation initiatives.

We do not sell your personal data to third parties. All third parties are required to respect the security of your personal data and treat it in accordance with the law.

4. Data Security

Auxos Global implements robust technical and organizational measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used, or accessed in an unauthorized way. Access to your personal data is limited to those employees and partners who have a legitimate business need to know.

5. Your Legal Rights

Depending on your location, you may have rights under data protection laws, including:

- Access: The right to request a copy of the personal data we hold about you.
- Correction: The right to request that we correct any incomplete or inaccurate data.

- Erasure: The right to request that we delete your personal data under certain circumstances.
- Object/Restrict: The right to object to or restrict the processing of your data.

6. Cookies and Tracking

Our website uses cookies to distinguish you from other users and to provide a better experience. You can set your browser to refuse all or some browser cookies, but this may affect website functionality.
